Dear Mr. Watson,

Thank you for your email.

Our process server indicated that they served the complaint and summons on that address while both you and your father were residing there.

In any event, as you know, I first emailed you the request for waiver of service with respect to this case, at this email address, on October 15, 2020. That email is attached. You did not respond to that email or to the request for waiver. As the request for waiver points out, Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide that a party that refuses to waive service may be ordered by a court to pay for the cost of hiring the process server. We have already incurred these expenses, given your failure to respond to the request for waiver.

I am hereby enclosing a new request for waiver of service. Please let us know whether you intend to waive service and, if so, please return the Waiver of Service form. If you do not, please let us know your current residential address so that we can arrange service at that location. Please note that if we do not hear from you in response to these requests, we may seek that the Court allow us to serve the Summons and Complaint in this case by alternative means, and we may seek that the Court order you to pay the service expenses we have already incurred or may incur.

I am available to discuss this matter with you at any time that may be convenient for you.

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter,

Sir,

I do not understand your email. The address you indicated is my father's rental property and Richard Gomez currently resides there. I have not been in New Mexico for many years and the letter addressed to Hon Koeltl is in err. Thank you.

Vr,

Jimmy Watson
